About Legal Aid BC Navigators

They work with lawyers and community service providers to help legal aid clients access information and support.

Navigators can:

- Connect you to community supports
- Find specialized support services to help you
- Put you in touch with an interpreter or a translator
- Answer questions about legal aid
- Provide you with practical support
- Communicate with your lawyer
- Assist with your appointments
- Follow up with you

Navigators can't:

- Give you legal advice or interpret the law for you
- Represent you or advocate for you in court
- Assist anyone with a conflict of interest in your case
